SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST
Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson No. 11 December 10-16. Subject: Delay of the Advent; Scripture Text: "Seeing then that all things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness; looking for and hastening unto the coming day of God; wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?" 2 Peter 3:11,12.

In this text Peter has connected the hastening of the Advent with holy and godly living. When we speak of delay in the coming of Christ we are really saying that we have not been, by the grace of God the kind of people we should be. There has been delay. "It is not the will of God that the coming Christ should be thus delayed." Evangelism page 696. The subject of this delay should be investigated, not to heap condemnation on the church, but to learn from past experience how to avoid continued delay."

Lesson Outlines - Parables and delay Read Matt. 24:48-50 also Matt. 25: 1-10. Part 2. Destruction Delayed Rev. 7:1. The central focus of delay is on the sealing work, and the sealing has to do with spiritual condition of the people of God. The wait is for the "Servants of God". (to surrender fully to the spirit.) Part 3. Jesus on Calvary made possible for us by faith in Him that the sealing can be and must be, accomplished. It is when the sealing is finished that the winds of strife are released and the last events take place. Part 4. Delays in Love 2 Peter 3:9. Peter assures us that while God is long suffering for the sinner's sake, yet the advent is certain. The apostle's thought of God's delay in the past combined with the certainty of His future coming is an expression of His character. In mercy He has delayed; but because He is just, Christ will surely come. Part 5. The Need for Patience Heb. 10:35-37. "Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come and will not tarry. Part. 6. Need For Watchfulness. Luke 12:35-37.40 The message of the signs is that the end has been near for more than one hundred years. We are living in an emergency of delay while Christ waits in mercy for His people to prepare, "by His grace". for His return. How soon these conditions will be met only God Himself knows. How will each type of servant be treated when the Master returns? Read Matt. 24:47,50.
